You can play in two different regions, Kanto and Johto, hunt for Pokemon with your friends, and battle strangers online. Pokemon Planet can easily be accessed through a browser on your PC so no installation is required. Pokemon Planet is a fan-made game that has caught a lot of attention from players and has been popular for a number of years. It was developed by Brody Gilbertson and it carries that 90s SEGA games vibe that allows you to roam the open world and look for different kinds of Pokemon while still in a pixelated environment. Kinda like the first Diablo. Related: Is it harder to catch wild pokemon in Pokemon Scarlet and Violet? The game received mixed reactions, with some people liking it a lot and others criticizing it heavily due to bugs and lack of development and updates in recent years. The single-developer model of it was also criticized as players mentioned that the support was slow or unresponsive. Pokemon Planet received praise for being easily accessible via a browser, but users on Reddit mentioned that it still lacked some functionalities because of that. The lack of a story and the ability to cut a lot of corners have also been disappointed of. In 2022, it seems that a certain player base is still there, but the numbers are well behind those of the official Pokemon games. We hope this article answered your question about Pokemon Planet. What is Pokemon Planet? Pokemon Planet is a free Pokemon MMO where you can battle, trade, and progress through the storyline alongside your friends and other players. The only region that is currently available is Kanto, filled with the same trainers/npcs/quests. Gameplay is similar to Fire Red/Leaf Green. I started working on Pokemon Planet early last year, but ended up busy working on other things. About half a year ago I rewrote the entire game and have been working on it since. Pokemon Planet is currently in closed beta. A few of my friends are helping me test it for bugs and balance issues. Please don't ask if you can be a part of the closed beta, just wait! :) EDIT: Open beta has launched, you can register an account at What is Pokemon Planet being developed with? Flash Acronscript 2.0 with Smartlossserver Pro. Everything has been completely written from scratch by myself. Completed Features: Fully working Pokemon system (up to Gen 4) with proper stat calculations, including IVs, EVs, random encounters, catching, storage system, etc Fully working battle system (minus a few moves that need to be touched up), battle NPC trainers or real players Fully working inventory/trade system, buy items from NPCs or trade with other players Fully working multiplayer system, watch other players move and talk in real time Progress through each city earning gym badges and eventually take on the Elite 4 All of Kanto Added Most of Johto Added Credit Shop with some cool items (credit shop items are tradeable and most also found in-game) All TMs/HMs working Fishing for Pokemon Highscores Starter Pokemon are not tradable, and will have to be found in special locations Clan System Drop system (Pokemon drop TMs, evolutionary stones, and different things depending on their type and rarity) Gamble at the casino and exchange tokens for prizes Held item system Friends/Ignore/Online list Kanto + Johto Safari Zones Decorative Items Global Auction/Marketplace System Planned Features: Johto, Hoenn, Sinnoh and entire custom regions (Johto is already in progress) Party system - group battles with and against your friends Dungeons/party-only maps - difficult areas meant to be faced in parties, teamwork will be needed Dynamic lighting system to make for a realistic atmosphere Spectate battles Weekly competitions with unique rewards Tournaments/Group Tournaments with prize pools and random prize generation Wager battles - battle your friends and bet items and Pokemon Tonnes of quests and custom areas Graphics overhaul Weather system Day/night system Crafting system Lots of other stuff. I need suggestions! Clan wars Credits - Myself - Nintendo/Game Freak/Pokemon Franchise Want To Help? If you're an artist/webiste designer who would like to help, send me a PM and we might be able to work something out :) well as i have played a few mmos for pokemon already id suggest "customized" ui (more user control on where everything is and where you want it to be then customizable controls (with hot keys so you can repel with a button) work on getting "better" graphics like using the ones from black and white.. also the faster you get a new region out the better as the main mmo i have played "promised" a new region a long time ago yet still lack making one. there are alot more stuff like getting mods to patrol the "fairness" of the game so no macros to get a shiny and ect also get a currency something for pokemon/items/hms/berrys and ect so there isnt a in game item worth for trades (unless super rare) well as i have played a few mmos for pokemon already id suggest "customized" ui (more user control on where everything is and where you want it to be then customizable controls (with hot keys so you can repel with a button) work on getting "better" graphics like using the ones from black and white.. also the faster you get a new region out the better as the main mmo i have played "promised" a new region a long time ago yet still lack making one. there are alot more stuff like getting mods to patrol the "fairness" of the game so no macros to get a shiny and ect also get a currency something for pokemon/items/hms/berrys and ect so there isnt a in game item worth for trades (unless super rare) I've actually entirely redone the GUI, it should look and feel much better now. I'll post pictures in a few days. There will be hotkeys, too. Hoenn will be added shortly after open beta, as soon as I get all the stability issues/bugs fixed ect. There will be mods and anti-bot measures as well :) Loving this already. Been looking for a new one since PokeMMO went crappy.Also will there be an EV stat box to see how many EVs that you trained on the pokemon. And may i suggest and an IV calculator for this MMO as well to make it easier for players to have tournament pokemon and no tournament pokemon. Also before PokeMMO started having trainers battle you like in the device games it you were able to skip the ones you didnt want to which was good since i always started with a different pokemon each time instead of the following 3 starters that kanto had. Another idea will be for a unstuck command for players if they get stuck some where in the game so they wont complain that they're stuck and wanting to quit. Also if you need some extra help just mapping hoenn or any other regions you plan on doing you message me if you like. Best of luck for this game :D Yep, there will be a interface where you can view information about your Pokemon, including IVs/EVs. People shouldn't ever get 'stuck', the sync is very good :) I can not wait to play this! I'd also like to test it out before Open Beta, if you'd let me of course. Thanks! It won't be long until open beta. looking really nice :) I suggest implementing Physical/Special Split, even though this was not in Gen 3, it was added in Gen 4 and it has been vital ever since. I just think having this early on and everyone accepting it will make the PvP and PvE much better. you should fix this when people sign-up and then try to log-in "Your account is still awaiting admin approval." because this makes me want to quit... and not try it out Sorry about that, there was a little bug with the admin approval and I had to do it manually for a bit. I've fixed this and you won't need to wait for me to approve accounts anymore. Nice. I look forward to playing it! Notes: I just played it, looks very nice. If you want some help to fix typos, or to translate to Portuguese, I'm here. Last edited by a moderator: Oct 20, 2014 Okay so i really like this a lot, and i will be helping out :D This sounds great! So it seems that it is like PokeMMO to the next level with more region? So are you going to redo the level curve or are we going to do an Ash, restarting with new teams? What could be done in this, you could have a massive story chain going through the whole game across all regions. A few years ago team rocket released a virus that affected pokemon in different regions differently, due to this no pokemon from another region is allowed to enter the new region. Upon entering that region you must obtain a new starter, and the only way for you to beat the virus is to defeat the corrupt elite 4 in each region and gain the cure for that region allowing you access to all your pokemon in that region. looking really nice :) I suggest implementing Physical/Special Split, even though this was not in Gen 3, it was added in Gen 4 and it has been vital ever since. I just think having this early on and everyone accepting it will make the PvP and PvE much better. The gen 4 split was implemented a few days ago :) Quite an interesting game very unique and i think i'll try it in the future :) Page 2 Gen 2, 3, and 4 Pokemon have been coded in and some are already available in-game. Lots of move fixes and various updates have been applied including some Johto maps and gyms. You can refer to the patch notes at That's really cool The only problem I have is the music. But everything else is great Gen 6 learnsets and Gen 6 TMs have been added The casino has been added. Crafting, held items, and a reworked fishing system are coming soon. Last edited: Jan 24, 2015 Held item system has been added (fyi legends are not available to regular players) Last edited: Jan 24, 2015 Decorative Items Added Global Marketplace System Added Altering cave has been added: random spawns that change everyday as well as wild pokemon that are equal to your average level. 6 unique drops are also found in this cave! Altering cave can be found on Route 103. 2 in Hoenn after you have 2 Hoenn badges. Clan wars and weekly mock experience gained competition added. Looks like a great game. But then again, there's also Pokemon 3D, in which is the same thing as Pokemon Planet, but instead is a combination of Gen 2(Mostly Pokemon Gold) style 3D gameplay -Black and White(Hidden Grottoes, having B & W online Gamejolt player sprites) -X and Y(PSS) All 721 Pokemon will be available in one game and in all regions(Johto, Kanto and Sevii Islands are currently available). I'm just a bit worried which game is gonna be "The Top Gun" in the Bootlegged Pokemon Game Business. The American Trainer who doesn't back down from a challenge. Just started playing this today 10/19 and so far I like it. It's been a while since I've played any of the pokemon games. Last game I played was pokemon gold and silver so that tells you how long it's been haha. The only thing that bothers me is when you get attacked by a random pokemon all i hear is music. I don't hear any of the combat at all. Like when you go to attack i hear nothing but music. I don't see any of the animation other than ember. When I throw a pokeball it doesn't show it getting captured. I know there all small things tend to bug me the most. Keep up the good work though. Ehh, the game itself is okay. It's a decent MMO attempt at Pokemon, sadly though I'm not used to playing pokemon in anything short of 5x the normal speed so it's not quite for me since as it's a MMO I obviously can't speed it up. But otherwise, good job. Can I still register for the open beta? So I have been playing this game for about a week now and I love everything about this game. However, I have one minor issue with the game and that is the chat room. Would you ever be willing to implement something such as turning off the chat window? or creating private chat? I have been muted twice because of it and I find it to be useless and annoying. The first reason I was muted was because I was trying to get my character to move and couldn't figure it out until I saw it in the chat window so instead of holding down backspace (Which I probably should have, probably would have prevented this whole mess.) I just pressed enter again. There was no "1st warning" I was just muted for 9999 minutes and they said don't spam but I couldn't explain my circumstances, I only did it once completely by accident. The second time I asked that moderator why he was basically the equivalent to Joseph Stalin? and muted again by a different moderator. (People just love to hate me!) Now I'm not asking for those moderators to go away but, I am asking that the chat could be more user friendly. Without moderators jumping off their rocks and muting/banning anyone at will without a fair warning. Maybe you could do something like the message would only show up to people in the same area of the map as you, if you wanted to talk to someone in a different part of the map then you add them to your friends list and send them a private message?! really like this game, I mean really like this game. However these moderators are Tyrants and I want my freedom of speech! P.S. my username is King3985 on Pokemon Planet Last edited by a moderator: Jan 30, 2016 I'd like to clear this up a bit. Please, take no offense. The mods are there to make sure there is no spam and rule breaking. The mute IS your warning. They aren't required to give you a warning at all. If you were muted for 9999 minutes, it was probably by Brody, the creator. If you filled several lines with one letter of spam, your probably did receive a long mute. Then going on to insult staff is also a bad idea. That aside, this game is amazing. Everybody should come and try it out. :) (though the server is down atm) I would like to say that Pokemon Planet Online is a really awesome game. I've been playing it since November of 2014 off an on and I have enjoyed every bit of it. There are PRO's and CON's of playing PPO, and I am going to fill out some of each for people to get an idea in case they read this thread and decide to try out the game! PROs Kanto and Johto completed: Hoenn is complete from a developers stand-point as far as I am aware it's just being held back so certain updates can be performed before releasing the rest of it! A ton of awesome Pokemon to obtain! (Beidum, Slakoth, Riolu via Casino - Larvitar via Clan Wars - A ton of Elite Rare's to obtain from different maps such as Goomy, Dratini, Bagon, Electabuzz, Snorlax, etc!) Active Clans! (This is a really good one because a lot of people love having a little family they can join and being able to have fun with a lot of people!) Wonderful Community! This game has a great community, minus the few spammers but as a Moderator you can be rest assured the job gets done and the community benefits a lot from it. CON'S Spam happens quite a bit, and it can be bad at times but it usually is easily handled by us Moderators! You may find it hard to get into one of the more established Clans unless you can establish yourself as a well-dominant force to be reckoned with. Lastly, the amount of grinding in later levels can possibly turn you off from playing, but a lot of people love the grind as well. I hope this helps some of you who have noticed this thread make a decision on playing the game! You will enjoy it most likely! Sincerely, Chat Moderator Tw3lveG4ge/Gawerty started playing this game yesterday and i can say i love it! Pokemon Planet was discovered by Nintendo, and it will no longer be available online. All of the effort and time put into this game will be squandered. Is Pokemon Planet also legal? Pokemon Planet is not available to children under the age of 13 (unless a parent or legal guardian gives permission) or to anyone who has been suspended or removed from Pokemon Planet. You acknowledge that only one person may use each Pokemon Planet account. Also, do you know what Pokemon Planet is? Pokemon Planet is a Pokémon MMO that is free to play. In real time, battle and play with your friends! Is Pokemon Planet, on the other hand, any good? Hundreds of Pokemon can be caught and trained, as well as exciting battles with gym leaders. Pokemon Planet is your best (and only) option if you've been looking for a Pokemon MMO. In a nutshell, it's a Pokemon game that's similar to those you've seen on Nintendo handhelds such as the Gameboy, DS, and 3DS. Is it possible to play Pokemon Planet on your phone? Using the Puffin browser, you can currently play Pokemon Planet on both iOS and Android. In Pokemon Planet, how do I wake up snorlax? The Pokemon series includes a key item, the Poké Flute. It's used to wake up and remove Snorlax from Route 12 and 16. It can be obtained by'rescuing' Mr. Fuji from Team Rocket by walking to F7 of the Lavender Tower in Lavender Town. Is it possible to make my own Pokemon cards? No, but by learning HTML, CSS, and JavaScript on your own, you can create your own website using a Pokemon game. Is it possible to make a Pokemon game with an Android device? You can, but I believe you'll need to learn Java programming. Try looking for books or taking online courses. In Pokemon Planet, how do you fly? HM Fly can be purchased by: 'From Celadon City, head west until you see either a snorlax blocking your path or an entrance to the bike path, where you cut the tree before snorlax or the bike path.' Then go up to the left. Talk to the girl in the house as soon as you enter. Is it possible to download Pokemon Planet? Using the Puffin browser, you can currently play Pokemon Planet on both iOS and Android. Please see the instructions for downloading the browser on mobile devices below. Once you've downloaded the game, go to the website and log in normally, and it'll work on your phone. Is it possible to sell Pokemon merchandise? Just because other sellers sell them doesn't mean you have the rights to them; they most likely haven't been caught yet. Yes, because selling any product that isn't licensed by Pokemon's trademark holder is against the law. Is it possible to sell Pokemon fan art? As long as you aren't profiting from copyrighted characters, you can't be sure that creating fan art is legal. The only way to be certain is if the copyright holder has given you written permission. Is it possible that Pokemon's names are copyrighted? Distribution of derivative works based on copyrighted property trademarks, service marks, trade names, and other proprietary property (Fan Art) by The Pokemon Company International, Inc., its affiliates, and licensors (Pokémon), in any form, and any channels now or in the future, constitutes a royalty-free, non-profit organization. Is it legal to play Pokemon games? So, without the user's permission, creating a fan game isn't generally legal. Creators, on the other hand, can do something to avoid receiving a nasty cease and desist message in their inbox if they want to make a fan game. Is it possible to play Pokemon on your computer? What is the best way to play Pokemon games on my computer? The popular "Pokemon" video games are usually played on Nintendo systems like the Gameboy Advance and Nintendo DS, but with a genuine copy of the game, they can also be played on a computer. Install the emulator to your computer by clicking the "Download" button. Is it illegal to copy Pokemon cards? If they notice a whiff of them selling, their legal teams are usually all over your face. Is there going to be a Pokemon MMO? Despite fans' wishes, Nintendo is not interested in a Legend of Zelda or a Pokemon MMORPG (Massively Multiplayer Online Role Playing Game). Sure, Pokémon Go has some MMORPG elements, but this isn't the same as a full console game with dungeons and story quests. What is the best Pokemon game? Pokémon Revolution is unquestionably one of the best, if not the best multiplayer Pokémon games. What is the best online Pokemon game? MMORPG Unova RPG - Top 10 Best Pokemon Online Games 2018 Edition Pokemon Vortex. Pokemon Planet. Pokemon Legends. Pokemon Battle Arena. TPPC Online. Pokemon Battle Quest. Pokemon Battle Quest is a free browser-based online RPG. Pokemon Dusk Reborn is a Pokemon series. Do you enjoy Pokemon, Dusk Reborn? Pokémon Planet is a free MMORPG based on the Pokémon franchise.
